

University College Dublin
School of Nursing, Midwifery & Health
Professional Practice

Special one-day conference on
Maternal Morbidities
Tuesday 8th November
2016

(funded by the Irish Research Council)

Minding Mothers with Morbidities

Minding Mothers with Morbidities conference Tuesday 8th November 2016

Venue: School of Nursing and Midwifery, Trinity College Dublin

Morning

8.30am	Registration (Foyer)
9am	Welcome, formal opening and overview of conference (Lecture Theatre- 2.57)
9.15am	Key note address - Professor Cecily Begley The contribution research makes to improvements in women's health during and after pregnancy
9.45am	The Maternal health And Maternal Morbidity in Ireland (MAMMI) study The reason for organising this conference (presentations from the MAMMI team)
10.30am	Tea and coffee (Foyer)
11am	Concurrent sessions and venues (Presentations are for 20 minutes, followed by Q and A for 5 minutes)
	Theme 1 (Room- 1.24)	Theme 2 (Room- 1.26)	Theme 3 (LT- 2.57)	Theme 4 (Room- 1.29)
	Mothers with morbidities - who are they and who stays healthy and morbidity free?	Health-seeking & self-help seeking behaviours - what do women do to get help?	Health promotion and prevention strategies - what does and doesn't work?	Treatments - what does and doesn't work?
11am	Major obstetric haemorrhage in Ireland: Findings from a national clinical audit 2011-2013	Speaking up, listening and responding; an exploration of factors affecting women with early warning signs and symptoms of pre-eclampsia seeking help	Weight management and wellbeing: An interpretative phenomenological analysis of the lived experience of women with obesity (BMI $\geq 30\text{kg/m}^2$)	Oral NSAIDs for perineal pain in the early postpartum period: a systematic review
	Ms Edel Manning	Ms Wendy Carter	Ms Sandra Atkinson	Dr Francesca Wuytack
11.30am	Mothering when living with mental distress or being HIV positive, insights from two Irish studies	Help-seeking behaviours of women experiencing sexual health issues at 6 and 12 months after birth. What helped and did not help?	Promoting breastfeeding following caesarean birth: views and experiences of women, clinicians and peer supporters on how to promote uptake and prevent early cessation	Management of hypertensive disorders of pregnancy postpartum: a systematic review
	Dr Teresa Tuohy & Dr Denise Proudfoot	Ms Deirdre O'Malley	Dr Chang Yan-Shing	Dr Alexandra Cairns
12.00MD	Postpartum depression in adolescent mothers	A cost-benefit analysis of a mobile application to monitor surgical wound post-Caesarean section: a pilot-based, feasibility study (Author- Dr Christopher Fawsitt)	Supporting the most vulnerable; the impact of social support on the perinatal experiences and outcomes of vulnerable women in North London.	Multi-professional care for women with pre-existing cardiac disease in pregnancy: a mixed methods evaluation of maternity care in two inner city hospitals
	Dr Mikki Meadows-Oliver	Ms Sarah Meaney	Ms Marie-Claire Balaam	Ms Felicity Mayer
12.30pm	The Irish Epilepsy and Pregnancy Register - 15 Years' Experience	Risk factors for incisional surgical site infection post caesarean section: a retrospective case control study	4M "my health, my choice, my child, my life": developing a national network of 'Mentor Mothers' to support women living with HIV through pregnancy	Exploring influencing factors of midwives' assessment of women's postnatal health
	Ms Brenda Liggan	Dr Khalid Saeed	Ms Angelina Nambia	Ms Susanne Simon
12.40pm	Panel discussion and chair's summary	Panel discussion and chair's summary	Panel discussion and chair's summary	Panel discussion and chair's summary
1pm-2pm	Lunch (Room 1.10)

Afternoon

2pm-2.25pm

Poster viewing - author(s) should be present to discuss their poster

Presentations by Experts (Lecture Theatre- 2.57)

2.30pm

Professor Stephanie Brown
Murdoch Childrens Research Institute, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia
Maternal health matters: using longitudinal study results to inform policy and practice in Australian maternity and postnatal primary care

2.50pm

Professor Debra Bick
Professor of Evidenced Based Midwifery, King's College London
Developing a research programme to address maternal morbidity: why postnatal care has to be 'fit for purpose'

3.10pm

Professor Mechthild Gross
Head of Midwifery Research and Education Unit, Hannover Medical School, Hannover, Germany
The dynamic aspects of midwifery care during labour

3.30pm

Professor Sophie Alexander
Perinatal Epidemiology and Reproductive Health Unit, School of Public Health, Université Libre de Bruxelles, Brussels, Belgium.
Promoting both non-interventional birth and appropriate care of severe morbidity

3.50pm

Professor Ingegerd Hildingsson
Professor of Midwifery, Uppsala University and Mid Sweden University, Sweden
Childbirth fear

4.10pm

Dr Paul Corcoran
Senior Lecturer in Perinatal Epidemiology, University College Cork
Severe maternal morbidity in Ireland

4.30pm

Closing remarks - Dr Mairead O Driscoll
Director of Research and Funding Strategy, Health Research Board (HRB), Ireland

4.45pm

Next steps and close of conference

5.00pm

Wine and Irish cheese reception, and networking (Foyer)

This conference is funded by the Irish Research Council #LoveIrishResearch