

Contemplating
the Past, Present and Future

17th Healthcare
Interdisciplinary
Research Conference
9 and 10 November 2016

For more information
www.trinityhirc.com

#HIRC2016

Wednesday 9 November 2016: Overview of activities

08.30	Registration opens: the registration desk will be attended until 17.00 Foyer
09.00-09.10	Welcome address Prof Catherine Comiskey: Head of the TCD School of Nursing and Midwifery Lecture Theatre 0.32
09.15-10.00	Keynote Presentation: Music and Health = A Natural Equation Ms Gráinne Hope: Artistic Director, Kids' Classics Lecture Theatre 0.32
10.00-10.30	Refreshment Break: Dining Area (Seminar Room 1.10) and Foyer
10.30-13.00	Concurrent sessions Individual venues identified on timetable
12.30-13.30	Lunch Service: Dining Area (Seminar Room 1.10) and Foyer
13.30-14.00	Poster presentations: presenters are requested to be by their posters for this session Outside Dining Area (Seminar Room 1.10)
14.00-14.45	Keynote Presentation: Tales of Irish nursing during The Easter Rising and The Great War: exploring the roles played by Irish nurses in 1916 Mr Paul Horan: Assistant Professor, TCD School of Nursing and Midwifery Lecture Theatre 0.32
15.00-17.00	Concurrent sessions Individual venues identified on timetable
17.15-19.00	Visit to the Book of Kells with wine reception Meet at registration desk at 17.15

Wednesday 9 November 2016: concurrent sessions 10.30-13.00

	Seminar Room 0.30 Children's Healthcare 1	Lecture Theatre 0.32 Maternity Care 1	Seminar Room 0.54 Mental Health 1	Seminar Room 0.55 Innovations	Seminar Room 1.26 Community and Public Health	Seminar Room 2.51 Clinical Environment
10.30-11.00	The consequences of sustaining a burn in childhood: reflections on accessing a vulnerable population Madeleine Niermeyer: University College Dublin	Persistent pregnancy-related pelvic girdle pain in primiparous women the year after childbirth: prevalence and symptom severity in an Irish cohort Francesca Wuytack: Trinity College Dublin	Public attitudes towards LGBT people in Ireland Carmel Downes: Trinity College Dublin	Prescription for improvement - releasing time to care through innovative approaches to medication management Tony Galvin: St James's Hospital	Evaluation across time: an overview of the findings relating to an education programme for sexual health promoters Thelma Begley: Trinity College Dublin	Out-of-hours communication between healthcare professionals in an acute hospital setting in Ireland Meabh Prendergast: Tallaght Hospital / Trinity College Dublin
11.00-11.30	Investigating the relationship between depression, obesity and school performance: using causal inference Prakashini Banka: Trinity College Dublin	Technological and humane aspects of maternity care in women's accounts: is there a conflict? Malgorzata Stach: Trinity College Dublin	Mental health morbidities and LGBT people in Ireland Agnes Higgins: Trinity College Dublin	Interprofessional collaborative practice in the clinical setting Emer Thompson: Institute of Technology Tralee and Anne Stoutt: Bantry General Hospital	Missed care in community nursing in Ireland Amanda Phelan: University College Dublin	A survey of nurses' knowledge and opinions about using the Emergency Response Team during a clinical deterioration Lallymol Abraham: St James's Hospital
11.30-12.00	Parenthood, child care and heroin use: outcomes after three years Catherine Comiskey: Trinity College Dublin	Denial as defence? The criminalisation of women who conceal pregnancy and birth Sylvia Murphy Tighe: Trinity College Dublin	Happiness and mental health in the LGBT community in Ireland Jan de Vries: Trinity College Dublin	"Working together, every staff member counts": huddles in the Emergency Department Caitriona McGarrell: St James's Hospital	Conspicuous invisibility: A grounded theory approach to exploring the discovery and disclosure of violence against women attending general practice Rita Lawlor: Health Service Executive	Point Break!: the nursing practice environment in acute hospitals Ciara White: University College Dublin
12.00-12.30	The role of grandparents in the health of the child who lives in a disadvantaged area Eleanor Hollywood: Trinity College Dublin	Bereaved parents' experiences of physical care needs during second trimester miscarriage Sarah Cullen: National Maternity Hospital	Self-harm and suicide attempts among LGBT people in Ireland Louise Doyle: Trinity College Dublin	Taking advantage of an opportunity to change the work environment Kathleen Kane and Candy Mercer: Nyack Hospital	An evaluation of an asthma education pilot programme targeting the Traveller and Roma community Brian Keogh: Trinity College Dublin	To examine diathermy smoke evacuation practices, attitudes and awareness of this health risk among perioperative nurses and surgeons Rachel O'Byrne -O'Reilly: Trinity College Dublin
12.30-13.00	The IACTA project - interactive technology as one way to create openings for younger children's participation when interacting in healthcare situations Anna Stalberg: Mälardalen University	Student presentation Two or four hourly vaginal examinations in labour; is there an association with intervention rates? Final year student midwives in TCD test your knowledge in a BLOCKBUSTER challenge	"Learning with": promoting LGBT wellbeing through innovations in research dissemination Nerilee Ceatha: Trinity College Dublin	Japanese students' preferred study habits in the digital age Suzy Connor: Nagasaki University

Wednesday 9 November 2016: concurrent sessions 15.00-17.00

	Seminar Room 0.30 Children's Healthcare 2	Lecture Theatre 0.32 Maternity Care 2	Seminar Room 0.55 Substance Use	Seminar Room 1.26 Cancer Care	Seminar Room 2.51 Caring in times of conflict
15.00-15.30	Exploring the screening and incidence of infants with developmental dysplasia of the hip (DDH) Heather Jennings: Waterford Institute of Technology	Power and authoritative Knowledge: the Second OptiBIRTH antenatal class Rebekah Maguire: Trinity College Dublin	Factors concerning to access in a potential drug consumption room in Merchant's Quay Ireland - an exploratory research project Emma Atkin-Brenninkmeyer: Trinity College Dublin	The importance of developing and maintaining self care for cancer related fatigue Patricia O' Regan: University College Cork	'To walk quietly into a hail of lead to bandage and carry away a wounded man, that is worth talking about'- the physical and psycho-social demands made on Stretcher Bearers in WW1 John Wells and Michael Bergin: Waterford Institute of Technology
15.30-16.00	Parents' experiences of living with and caring for children, adolescents and young adults with Mucopolysaccharidosis (MPS) Suja Somanadhan: University College Dublin / Temple Street Children's University Hospital	Women's experiences of transfer from midwifery-led to consultant-led care Patricia Larkin: Dundalk Institute of Technology	Opioid treatment outcomes in older adults: a systematic review of the literature Anne-Marie Carew: Trinity College Dublin	The cost of survival: colorectal cancer survivors' experiences of bowel dysfunction Amanda Drury: Trinity College Dublin	The psychological implications of providing nursing care within a war zone Alan Finnegan: University of Chester
16.00-16.30	The development of an evidence-based resource to respond to the early information needs of families of children with disabilities Alison Harnett: University College Dublin	Puerperal mother's experiences regarding the midwifery interventions in public hospitals of Limpopo province, South Africa Magdeline Thopola: University of Limpopo	Hidden harms and hidden data: innovative methods of estimating the number of children of parents who misuse substances, including alcohol Karen Galligan: Trinity College Dublin	Scoping review of the assessment and management of chemotherapy-related toxicity to ensure the eSMART intervention is evidence based and reflects current and local practice Patricia Fox: University College Dublin	An exploration of political awareness amongst a cohort of all field nursing/midwifery students, in one university in Northern Ireland - Phase 2 Siobhan McCullough: Queens University Belfast
16.30-17.00	A retrospective study of the efficacy and tolerability of Levetiracetam (Keppra) as a first line monotherapy in childhood epilepsy Ann Connolly: Tallaght Hospital and Mary Quirke, Trinity College Dublin

Poster Presentations: Wednesday 9 November 2016

Poster No	Poster Title	Presenter/s
1	Clinicians' views of factors influencing decision-making for caesarean section: a systematic review and metasynthesis	Sunita Panda: Trinity College Dublin
2	The best thing that's happened in years - changing shift handover practice in an acute surgical ward	Tony Galvin: St James's Hospital
3	Facilitating transition into clinical practice - nurse residency programs: a descriptive qualitative research study	Patty Furlong: Dominican College
4	Voices that matter: bereaved relatives - their experience of care	Geraldine Prizeman: Trinity College Dublin
5	Learning to care for a child with a tracheostomy: student nurse experiences of online learning and reusable learning objects	Frances Howlin: University College Dublin
6	Mothers and Fathers experiences of compassionate care during second trimester miscarriage	Sarah Cullen: National Maternity Hospital
7	Financial abuse of vulnerable adults in Northern Ireland: safeguarding staffs' experiences and the potential application of the Older Adult Financial Abuse Measure	Amanda Phelan: University College Dublin
8	Implementing electronic patient documentation for health and social care professionals	Deirdre Gilchrist: St James's Hospital
9	What are surgical team members' attitudes towards the safety culture in the operating theatre and the WHO surgical safety checklist	Katie O'Byrne: Trinity College Dublin
10	School victimisation of disadvantaged children and association with depression and health related quality of life: the Baseline picture	John Hyland and Pauline Hyland: Dublin Business School

Thursday 10 November 2016: Overview of activities

08.30	Registration opens: the registration desk will be attended until 17.00 Foyer
09.15-10.00	Keynote Presentation: Wasting time with people? Ms Alice Leahy: Director of Services of The Alice Leahy Trust Lecture Theatre 0.32
10.00-10.30	Refreshment Break: Dining Area (Seminar Room 1.10) and Foyer
10.30-13.00	Concurrent sessions Individual venues identified on timetable
12.30-13.30	Lunch Service: Dining Area (Seminar Room 1.10) and Foyer
13.30-14.00	Poster presentations: presenters are requested to be by their posters for this session Outside Dining Area (Seminar Room 1.10)
14.00-16.00	Concurrent sessions Individual venues identified on timetable
16.00-16.10	Announcement of best poster prize Lecture Theatre 0.32
16.15-17.00	Keynote Presentation: Some aspects of consent in medical matters Ms Patricia Dillon: Senior Counsel, The Law Library Lecture Theatre 0.32

Thursday 10 November 2016: concurrent sessions 10.30-13.00

	Seminar Room 0.30 Education 1	Lecture Theatre 0.32 Maternity Care 3	Seminar Room 0.54 Mental Health 2	Seminar Room 0.55 Experiences of Patients and Their Relatives / Carers 1	Seminar Room 2.51 Healthcare staff experiences	Lecture Theatre 2.57 Intellectual Disability 1
10.30-11.00	An exploration of empowerment amongst final-year undergraduate nursing students while on clinical placement in Ireland using Social Domain Theory Sara Kennedy: Waterford Institute of Technology	Women's knowledge of performing pelvic floor muscle exercises (PFME) before and during Deirdre Daly: Trinity College Dublin	A systematic review of the efficacy of harmful behaviour programmes for patients in forensic mental health settings Gerry Farrell: University of Limerick	Past, present & future: using patients experience and expectations to plan care in a large academic teaching hospital Julie O'Grady: St James's Hospital	Nurses experiences of participating in leech therapy in plastic and reconstructive surgery in Ireland Alison Reynolds: Trinity College Dublin	Designing interfaces for users with intellectual disabilities Marian McDonnell: Dun Laoghaire Institute of Art, Design & Technology
11.00-11.30	Implementation of a Best Practice Preceptorship model to improve clinical teaching and learning Edel McSharry: St Angela's College Sligo	Anal incontinence in nulliparous women before and during pregnancy – findings from the MAMMI Study Margaret Carroll: Trinity College Dublin	The utility of the Family Model in mapping psychiatric nurses' family focused practice with parents who have mental illness, their children and adult family members in Ireland Anne Grant: Queen's University Belfast	A longitudinal Discrete Choice Experiment of the preferences for health services of ALS patients and their carers Katy Tobin: Trinity College Dublin	Healthcare staff's experiences on administering medication covertly in elderly residential care settings: a systematic literature review Maria Lucia Teixeira: Trinity College Dublin	Nurses experience of caring for people with intellectual disability and dementia Josephine Cleary: Brothers of Charity
11.30-12.00	Evidence to support the inclusion of humanities course content in undergraduate nursing education: a systematic review Mary Beth Zeni: Ursuline College	Readmission following caesarean section: reasons for readmission and outcomes for women in one large Irish maternity hospital Sunita Panda: Trinity College Dublin	Exploring mental health issues through innovative media: Facebook and popular cinema Edward McCann and Sylvia Huntley-Moore: Trinity College Dublin	Deconstructing caregiver burden in Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis: adding a qualitative perspective Miriam Galvin: Trinity College Dublin	Exploring the impact a training programme has on healthcare staff attitudes and understandings of dementia: a mixed methods evaluation study Orla Quirke: Institute of Technology Tralee	The experience of a self-selected approach to physical activity among adults with an intellectual disability: a phenomenological study Sheila O'Sullivan: Institute of Technology Tralee
12.00-12.30	Students' perceptions of their preparedness for oral medication management Therese Leufer and Joanne Cleary-Holdforth: Dublin City University	The challenges experienced by student nurses regarding delivery of babies whose mothers tested HIV-positive at a tertiary hospital in Limpopo province, South Africa Masamo Lekhuleni: University of Limpopo	Web-based interventions for work-related stress and strain: a scoping review Cathal Ryan: Waterford Institute of Technology	Dying in acute hospitals: care experiences from the perspective of bereaved relatives Bettina Korn: St James's Hospital and Geraldine Prizeman: Trinity College Dublin	Integrating a code of professional conduct and ethics in practice: an action research approach Ciara Kissane: Institute of Technology Tralee	What font(s) do people with intellectual disabilities prefer? Elaine Higgins: NUI Galway
12.30-13.00		Prevalence of sexual health issues in first time mothers and associated risk factors Deirdre O'Malley: Trinity College Dublin	Preliminary findings of a mixed methods evaluation of Pieta House-suicide intervention model Jennifer Donnelly: St Patrick's Hospital / Dublin City University	Developing a quality care-metric: unpacking public health nurses' practice during the first postnatal visit Martina Giltenane: University College Dublin

Thursday 10 November 2016: concurrent sessions 14.00-15.30

	Seminar Room 0.30 Education 2	Lecture Theatre 0.32 Maternity Care 4	Seminar Room 0.54 Mental Health 3	Seminar Room 0.55 Experiences of Patients and Their Relatives / Carers 2	Seminar Room 2.51 Research	Lecture Theatre 2.57 Intellectual Disability 2
14.00-14.30	Assessment - making it matter Joanne Cleary-Holdforth and Therese Leufer: Dublin City University	Vitamin supplementation before and during pregnancy Jamile Dacach Fernandez Marchi: Trinity College Dublin	An exploration of the experience of living with someone with an eating disorder: partners' perspectives Patricia O'Connor: Trinity College Dublin	Empowerment within Irish epilepsy services: an exploratory analysis Louise Bennett: Waterford Institute of Technology	Reconciling 'is' and 'ought': Innovative solutions for empirical ethics research Anna-Marie Greaney: Institute of Technology Tralee	Mapping 15-year trends of day service provision for people with intellectual disabilities in Ireland – is policy-driven individualisation a reality yet? Padraic Fleming: Maynooth University
14.30-15.00	Attraversiamo or 'Let's cross over'! Louise Kavanagh-McBride: University of Ulster	Normalising breastfeeding within a formula feeding culture: an Irish qualitative study Patricia Leahy-Warren: University College Cork	Experiences of Moetsi centre parents regarding support services for their mentally disabled children., Limpopo province, South Africa Jermina Kgole: University of Limpopo	What experiences do politicians and health personnel have with municipality facilitation to ensure leisure activities for residents both inside and outside the nursing home? Rita Helme: University of Tromsø	A survey of nurses and midwives research interest and perceptions of barriers and enablers to research participation in an area in Ireland Vanessa Clarke: Nursing and Midwifery Planning and Development HSE North East	People with intellectual disability living in the community. What can they tell us about adherence to medication in this vulnerable population? Bernadette Flood: Daughters of Charity Disability Support Services
15.00-15.30			Public Health Nurses and perinatal mental health: A qualitative meta-synthesis Maria Noonan: University of Limerick	Education needs of families of people who are transgender in Ireland: a consultation needs analysis within a PhD study Danika Sharek: Trinity College Dublin	What type of inferential statistics are nurses and midwives applying to research data? Helen Evelyn Malone: Trinity College Dublin	Recruitment and consent of adults with intellectual disabilities in a classic grounded theory research study: ethical and methodological considerations Eileen Carey: University of Limerick

Poster Presentations: Thursday 10 November 2016

Poster No	Poster Title	Presenter/s
1	Clinicians' views of factors influencing decision-making for caesarean section: a systematic review and metasynthesis	Sunita Panda: Trinity College Dublin
2	The best thing that's happened in years - changing shift handover practice in an acute surgical ward	Tony Galvin: St James's Hospital
3	Transition into practice: implementation of nurse residency programs	Patty Furlong: Dominican College
4	Voices that matter: bereaved relatives - their experience of care	Geraldine Prizeman: Trinity College Dublin
5	Learning to care for a child with a tracheostomy: student nurse experiences of online learning and reusable learning objects	Frances Howlin: University College Dublin
6	The use of The Palliative Outcome Scale (POS) in assessing Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis patients for identifying care intervention	Sinead Maguire: Beaumont Hospital / Trinity College Dublin
7	Thrombocalc: personalized postpartum venous thromboembolism risk assessment in a high-throughput environment	Mary Deering: Rotunda Hospital